Dear Sisters and members in formation, greetings from our Motherhouse here in Rome.
As we begin the term, we greet you on this special day, the day of the consecrated persons.

The Jubilee year 2025 is dedicated to the theme “Pilgrims of Hope” emphasizes the journey of faith and the role of hope in navigating life’s challenges.

The word Hope resonates as well in our 22nd Chapter theme: “Walking together, rekindling the gift of the Spirit among us, so as to proclaim and inflame all”. Hope is an important aspect in our personal life journey as well as in the journey of Salvatorian life, because God is right there, close, involved in our lives. Hope is essential for survival and it gives confidence to walk into the unknown future. So we are called to be ...

1. A Beacon of hope: It is a bright light that guides people to safety, helping them find their way forward even in uncertain times. Hope is the human ability to see positive results in situations where the outcome is still unknown. Hope is an essential component of our well-being.
2. A Ray of hope: The ray of hope is a powerful symbol of positivity, and it has the ability to brighten our days even in the darkest of times. These rays of hope are what keep us going, what push us forward, and what remind us that there is light at the end of every tunnel. And reminds us that, “The light within you is stronger than the darkness around you.”
3. A Sign of hope: In a suffering world, we are called to be signs of hope on our journey. Our consecrated life plays a significant role. It involves setting apart people, places, or things for divine service. When we dedicate our lives completely to God, we open ourselves to His guidance and empowerment.
4. A hope of transformation: Today consecrated life is full of hopes, new experiments and proposals aimed at giving fresh vigour to the profession of the evangelical counsels. We need to commit ourselves with fresh enthusiasm, reflecting the multiplicity of gifts bestowed by God on Fr. Jordan and Mother Mary who, in openness to the working of the Holy Spirit, successfully interpreted the signs of the times and responded wisely to new needs.
5. A guiding light of hope: A light that provides guidance and direction. It is a source of inspiration in our journey and helps us to find our way to achieve our God-given goal.

Dear Sisters, Happy day dedicated to Consecrated Life!
